

Cassidy Flynn

Cassidy is back! Some of you may remember Cassidy teaching classes and camps here in the past. We are very happy to have her back after completing her Masters Degree in Arts & Art Therapy and Counseling.

Cassidy has varied experience working in the arts and mental health fields with people of all ages, needs, and abilities and is currently working as an Art Therapist at PMHC Clinic in Philadelphia in the outpatient and intensive outpatient substance abuse treatment program.