

Lily Cernak

I am an illustrator, author, JP-EN translator, art and language instructor and general nerd.

On the web you may see me as Rainysidewalks on Instagram, Rain- and-Sunshine on DeviantArt, or myself on Facebook. My Japanese practice account is @weeklykatakana.

My webcomics include Farewell Feeling, Yuki no Monogatari (written by Richard VanHouten), and several short stories.

I teach individual and group classes (online via Skype, or in person!) on Japanese, ESL, manga drawing, digital drawing, drawing in general, and more.
